Jewish Arts Around Town

Concert, tour at White Flint

Rabbi David Shneyer will perform a concert as part of Musical Family Fun Day in "Jewish Washington" at White Flint Mall in Rockville on Sept. 12 at 11 a.m. Family tours of the exhibit Jewish Washington: Scrapbook of an American Community begin that day at 10:30 a.m. and noon. The activities are free.

9/11 film at Avalon

9/12: From Chaos to Community, a film about a community of people that grew out of the volunteer effort at Ground Zero in New York City, will be screened at the Avalon Theater in the District on Sept. 10 at 7:30 p.m. Tickets are $9.75 for adults, $7 for students, seniors and children and $6.50 for Avalon members.

Going to a new home

Silver Spring artist Nathan Moskowitz, who paints under the name Nahum HaLevi, is having three of his paintings put on permanent exhibit at the Israel

Bible Museum in Sfat, Israel, including this colorful one, "The Deep Bittersweet Waters of Miriam: The Alchemy of Jealousy."
